

Rheingau Music Festival: Traveling Musicians at the Robert Weil Winery

Impressions of the event on 17th July 2017

On the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the Rheingau Music Festival, a "summer of music", Runte.Weil & Alt GmbH had invited their guests to Weingut Robert Weil. Who loves wine and music was here in the right place. As last year, excellent Rieslings, a regional menu, the fantastic backdrop of the winery and, of course, the rousing musicians were again the recipe for success of this classic highlight of the Rheingau Music Festival. With fine weather, all participants enjoyed the relaxed atmosphere of this Sunday afternoon event. The Frankfurt Swing All Stars and Uwaga! were our favorite bands this year. And a "Turmberg" selection wine accompanying the dessert was also not to be missed.
